ADMINISTRATION, TEACHING & RESEARCH (Higher Education)

Founding Dean, College of Arts & Sciences, California Baptist University, Riverside, California

Founding Dean of CAS [Jul 2001 – Jun 2005], as California Baptist reconstituted itself from a College to a University, reporting to the Provost of the University. The new College originally comprised six departments [Christian Ministries; Fine Arts; History, Political Science & Philosophy; Kinesiology; Modern Languages & Literature; and Natural & Mathematical Sciences], from which subsequently were spun two separate schools [Christian Ministries and Music] to join the other schools already established. CAS was and remains home for the majority of baccalaureate level programs at the University, as well as the University's general education offerings, with the largest number of assigned faculty and students.

Founding Program Director, CBU Honors Program, California Baptist University, Riverside, California

While dean of CAS, the College founded an honors program in 2004, for which I provided founding direction and oversight, and in which I regularly taught and continue regularly to teach. Honors comprises a set of eight themed seminars—one each semester for the four years of a regular baccalaureate degree program, providing extra depth and breadth to selected students' studies.

Division Chair, Interdisciplinary Studies, California Baptist College, Riverside, California

Division Chair of IS [Jan 2000 – Jun 2001], reporting to the Dean of the College. CBC was originally divided into several major Divisions, which comprised programs for traditional and non-traditional student populations. One key purpose of the IS division was to knit together programs from disciplines across the campus to provide innovative educational opportunities to our students, as well as manage programs in computer systems engineering and management that were unique to the Division.

Center Director, Evening College (Main Campus), California Baptist College, Riverside, California

Center Director [Jul 1998 – Jan 2000] for the Main Campus operations of our Evening College, reporting to the Dean of the Evening College. The key purpose of the Evening College was to manage and coordinate delivery of degree completion programs on the main campus and two off-site locations to non-traditional student populations.

Full Professor, College of Arts & Sciences, California Baptist University, Riverside, California

Professor of Law, Ethics & Humanities [Jul 1998 - present] with teaching responsibilities in law/political science, ethics, humanities, and honors; and former Dean, College of Arts & Sciences [Jul 2001 – Jun 2005]; CBU Honors Program Director [2004-2005]; Division Chair, Interdisciplinary Studies [Jan 2000 - Jun 2001]; and Center Director, Evening College (Main Campus) [Jul 1998 – Jan 2000]. Research Sabbatical: Aug 2005 - Jul 2006.

Adjunct Senior Lecturer, College of Arts & Sciences, University of Louisville, Louisville, Kentucky

Part-time teaching load in department of philosophy included courses in ethics, business ethics (undergraduate and executive programs), logic, and intro to philosophy [Jan 1995 - Jun 1998]

Visiting Professor, College of Liberal Arts, Florida Atlantic University, Davie, Florida

Full-time teaching load included courses in public policy, issues in American political life, and political theory [Aug 1993 - Aug 1994]

Lecturer (= Assistant/Associate Professor), Faculty of Asian & International Studies (AIS), Griffith University, Brisbane, Australia

Full-time teaching load included courses in int'l business relations program, as well as main, honors and graduate courses in int'l law and int'l business ethics (incl. comparative religious ethics) for business, MBA and law students. Successfully introduced case study methods into all courses. Personally secured corporate funding of annual $1000 student prize in int'l business ethics. Member of Steering Committee, Honors & Masters Programs [Jul 1990 - Jul 1993]

Assistant Professor, Legal Studies Program, Nova Southeastern University, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

Full-time teaching load included introductory and upper division courses in legal research, international law & foreign affairs, Anglo-American legal history, comparative constitutional law, legal philosophy, and the legal profession. Co-Director, Pre-Law Program [Sep 1989 - Jun 1990]

Visiting Assistant Professor, Dept of Philosophy, Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, Illinois

Full-time teaching load as sabbatical replacement included courses in philosophy of law, ancient and modern social & political philosophy, moral philosophy, and applied ethics (national & international business ethics, and biomedical ethics). [Sep 1988 - May 1989]

Visiting Assistant Professor, Dept of Government, California Baptist University, Riverside, California

Full-time teaching load included survey courses in American, and state & local government; and upper division courses covering public law and policy, political philosophy, int'l relations & diplomatic history and U.S. constitutional law & history. Also designed a seminar on U.S./U.S.S.R. arms control, and drafted a series on alternative dispute resolution. [Aug 1984 - Jun 1985]

Programs Coordinator & Research Associate, UCLA Center for International & Strategic Affairs, Los Angeles

Duties included coordinating CISA activities and programs, such as seminars and conferences, Center publications, and conducting computer crisis simulation exercises. Also responsible for fiscal affairs, including budgetary planning, accounting, and drafting grant proposals. Conducted research on legal, game theoretic and ethical dilemmas in strategic planning and conflict theory. Presented seminar papers analyzing moral dilemmas in contemporary nuclear deterrent policies. [Jun 1983 - Aug 1984]
